WHEN WE HAD A CLIENT REQUEST THE IMPOSSIBLE (a two-day full ship charter w/ custom itinerary) Worldwide took the ball and ran. They served as our research and product development team saving us valuable time and resources while providing us with cost effective on target solutions to meet our client's needs.

When we were searching for All-Inclusive individual incentive travel packages Worldwide was able to secure and negotiate contracts with several resorts. But most importantly when it came time for fulfillment they were there with consistent communication and follow up. They have taken the hassle out of dealing with multiple resorts for individual travel packages with their one stop shop approach to our needs.

Worldwide has been a wealth of information on inclusive properties and new cruise products. And when it comes time for negotiations and program operations it is very apparent that their supplier relationships and communication skills are exceptional. # Crystal Cruises

Crystal Cruises impressive list of awards speaks for itself, two of the travel industries major publications, Conde Nast and Travel & Leisure have, for seven consecutive years, voted the Crystal "the World's Best Large Cruise Line" and "Reader's Choice Award".

In this age of ever increasing opulence, Crystal Cruises have established themselves as a bench mark of high quality and superb service. The list of on-board amenities is so long that it would be impossible to list here (go to www.cruise.com for this and other detailed information).

Restaurant and menu choices are a key feature of modern cruising. Not to be undone, Crystal excels here too with multiple dining venues for breakfast and lunch, the Bistro which features European style ambience and cuisine. Casual outdoor dining at the Trident Bar & Grill as well as lavish themed outdoor luncheon buffets.

From the elegant "Crystal Dining Room", to the Valentino's menu at the "Prego", as well as Asian and Italian specialty restaurants and Chinese at the "Jade Garden", there are many choices and styles to choose from.

On-board entertainment with Broadway-style productions in the theatre, Caesars Palace at Sea Casino, Disco and Karaoke lounges and even classical musical performances are just some of the fun things one can do on a cruise. For those wishing to improve their computer skills, there is even a Computer University with complimentary instruction.

Crystal Cruises have always been rated highly by experienced cruisers and never more so than now, with new hardware on the horizon, they have to be a serious consideration for any cruise program.

Radisson Seven Seas Cruises

The Seven Seas Mariner will luxuriously accommodate 700 guests and becomes the first all-balcony, all-suite vessel in the Radisson fleet and in the cruise industry.

The Mariner caters to only 700 guests, giving her more space per guest than any cruise ship in the world. She offers the luxury of single, open-seating dining in four distinctive restaurants featuring the finest cuisine afloat. And in the six-star tradition of Radisson Seven Seas, the Mariner will provide the highest level of personal service.

Complimentary pouring wines at dinner, complimentary in-suite bar set-up and a no-tipping policy, a sparkling entertainment program with celebrity guest appearances, a computer equipped internet café, bridge instruction, dance hosts, a state-of-the-art Judith Jackson Spa and an exclusive new Cordon Bleu Classe Culinaire workshop at sea provide an extraordinary breadth of activities and entertainments for guests.

For those who enjoy world cruising and long voyages, the Mariner will offer an opportunity to step up to an unprecedented degree of luxury and personal service never before available on a ship of this range.

The Mariner preserves the personal touch while offering a wider variety of facilities, activities and cruising range than is available aboard smaller ships.

The Radisson Seven Seas Cruises fleet comprise the following deluxe ships... m/s Seven Seas Mariner, ssc Radisson Diamond, m/s Seven Seas Navigator and the m/s Paul Gauguin, m/s Seven Seas Voyager.

Radisson Seven Seas Cruises

The new 700-guest Seven Seas Voyager is the world's second all-suite, all-balcony ship and the second to feature a restaurant operated by Le Cordon Bleu of Paris.

Onboard the Seven Seas Voyager, there are four main dining venues, surprising for a ship of her size. The Voyager also features some of the highest space and service ratios at sea, and her suites are the largest "lead-in" suites in the industry.

Her inaugural year voyages will be blazing new trails for discriminating travelers who delight in the joy of discovering new places while indulging mind and body in the most luxurious surrounding imaginable.

The Seven Seas Voyager is the natural continuation and ultimate extension of a theme that Radisson Seven Seas embarked upon more than a decade ago with its first ship, the Radisson Diamond. And that theme is providing a superbly satisfying cruise experience for those who seek adventure while also enjoying all the comforts and personal service of a six-star cruise ship. With the advent of new materials and technologies, this theme has evolved far beyond anything we could have originally envisioned. The Seven Seas Voyager is not only our newest ship; it is our second vessel to offer all-suite, all-balcony accommodations (the first was our Seven Seas Mariner).

Since memorable dining is an integral part of a superb cruise, the Voyager is one of the first ships to feature an open galley in one of our fine restaurants. Like the Mariner, the Voyager will also offer a restaurant operated by the famed Le Cordon Bleu of Paris. And a sumptuously appointed spa under the aegis of Judith Jackson, one of the world's leading practitioners of aromatherapy and other health promoting regimens.

Costa Cruise Line

Costa, the number one choice in Europe is fast becoming North America's cruise line of choice for not only cruises in Europe, but the Caribbean as well. With two sister ships, the Costa Atlantica new in 2000 and the Costa Mediterranea which began service in 2003.

Weekly cruises from Fort Lauderdale to the Eastern and Western Caribbean are not new to cruisers, but Costa has put a new spin on the on board experience with the newest ships in the area. Cruising Italian Style is not only the trademark; it is a way of life on board.

The Costa Atlantic and the Costa Mediterranea offer over 70% of the outside staterooms with private balconies.

service and award winning entertainment and we have the makings on a top-level incentive program on Costa.

Costa's Europe is another story. Add to the above 7 additional vessels ranging from 800 to over 2000 passengers visiting 87 ports in 29 countries and you have to know why Costa is Europe's Number One cruise line.

In today's incentive environment balconies are the preferred stateroom for reward winners. Combine the spacious staterooms with multiple dining options, true Italian food, friendly and courteous

The Yachts of Seabourn

The Seabourn philosophy is to create nothing less than a totally new concept of cruising - with absolute dedication to the highest level of personal service, equal to that found in celebrated hotels, resorts and restaurants on shore.

Spaciousness and elegance is the rule, with an ambiance that allows pampered guests to establish their own pace befitting their own lifestyles.

Seabourn Cruise Line is generally regarded by the public and travel industry as one of the most celebrated cruise lines in the world, having consistently received top awards, ratings and honors in travel and cruise guidebooks and other authoritative publications.

The fleet comprises three almost identical ships, the Seabourn Pride, Legend and Spirit all of them having undergone major refit work in recent years during which a large number of suites on each ship were fitted with French balconies to further the cruiser's on-board experience.

The intimate size of these mega-yacht style cruise ships ensures their exclusivity. Just 208 guests accommodated in all-suite accommodation, stylish and elegant with Seabourn's unrivalled service, hospitality and cuisine all of which they continue to up-grade, have ensured they continue to receive rave reviews.

Carnival Cruise Line

One of the two big players in the cruise industry and, questionably, the one that started cruising as we know it today.

Carnival Cruise Line has a modern fleet of ships ranging from very large (3000 plus) passengers to a comfortable (1700 plus) so, somewhere in the mix is a ship for your program.

Carnival has upgraded its on-board experience over the last year or so and now offers a quality cruise equal or better than most of the major lines. The average age of a Carnival passenger is only forty-seven years old. They also carry more passengers over 55 years old, so there is an interesting and active age spread of sailing passengers.

The latest generations of new ships are very different, more tastefully decorated and offer unique public rooms and settings. Cabin sizes at an average of 185 sq. ft. are the largest in the contemporary market.

Live entertainment from Vegas style shows rivaling the best anywhere and adult style comedy and cabaret at midnight. Casino are larger and livelier, restaurant choices are expanded, and depending on the ship, range from the ships main dining room to Joe's Stone Crab and made to order Sushi at the sushi bar.

Carnival offers exciting and varied itineraries operating from a huge selection of ports across the nation and internationally. Carnival is also investing in port facilities to improve the passengers experience when the ships are in port. New terminals with shopping, restaurants and other facilities are appearing to enhance the shore-side experience.

New and interesting 5/4/5 day itineraries have been added; these are ideal for many

Holland America Line

Holland America's latest addition to their fleet is the m.s. Oosterdam, sister ship to the m.s. Zuiderdam the first of new Vista Class Series - forward-looking in both design and spirit.

On board, the Oosterdam, 1,848 pampered guests will enjoy more space per person than any other ship in a fleet already known for its stylish, spacious comfort. Plus, more outside staterooms with ocean views and private verandahs. Expanded spa facilities, three sparkling pools.

Accommodations in spacious suites and staterooms are the largest on any of the Holland America ships: Two huge (1126sq ft) Penthouse Suites and sixty Deluxe Verandah Suites (563 sq ft) with 85% of the staterooms having ocean views and 67% with verandahs.

The 924 staterooms are splendidly appointed.

Even more spacious and luxurious than any of the other ships in the Holland America Fleet with exterior elevators traversing ten decks that give panoramic views of the ship at sea. Two interior promenade decks and a covered exterior promenade deck encircles the ship, a large lido deck pool with a retractable dome and the signature disco/crows nest lounge are just some of the facilities available.

In typical Holland America fashion, an extensive multi-million dollar art collection, fresh flowers arrangements,

Among the many dining options aboard is the two-tiered Rotterdam Dining Room. Here you will savor world-class cuisine served on the finest Rosenthal china. With numerous bars and lounges as well as the three tiered Queen's Lounge. Relax in the sophisticated Main Lounge with a quiet cocktail and pleasant conversation before dinner. Come later and you'll be dazzled by the glitz and glamour of an exciting Broadway-style show. With a

Cunard Line

Cunard Line proudly continues a tradition of luxury cruising that began in 1840. Today its flagship, Queen Elizabeth 2, is the world's most famous ship and the greatest liner of her time setting the standard of traditional British elegance, superb White Star Service, gourmet cuisine and sumptuous accommodations that have secured Cunard's reputation.

The Cunard fleet will soon be augmented by the commissioning of the Queen Mary 2. At a cost of 750 Million Dollars the Liner will be the world's largest and probably the most luxurious - cruise liner since the QE2. Queen Mary 2 seems to embody the public's renewed fascination with the romance of a bygone era of sea travel She will be the first true ocean liner to be built in a generation and to describe her means using all the superlatives one can muster, biggest, longest, fastest, roomiest - words simply do not describe this superb ship.

Her dimensions are impressive, she measures over 1,130 feet in length and will tower nearly 21 stories in height from keel to masthead, with a gross registered tonnage of more than 150,000 tons.

The QM2 is expected to carry just 2,620 guests, which is a very small complement for a ship of this size and will offer impeccable service with a crew to passenger ratio of 2:1.

Celebrity Cruises

Celebrity Cruises has probably the youngest fleet of ship currently in service. Their new Millennium series ships made up of the Millennium, the Constellation and the Summit are their newest additions.

These luxurious ships can rightly be called smaller and more intimate than many of the new ships being put into service by the major cruise lines.

The Millennium is a splendid vessel, from the Grand Foyer to The RMS Olympic specialty restaurant, luxury shows in every enables these ships to be able to do longer itineraries and still let their passengers enjoy lengthy shore stays.

Celebrity has been overshadowed by Royal Caribbean in recent years, but the company is making a sincere effort to regenerate the Celebrity image, with improved service and upgraded food they will offer even better value and an up-market brand image.

On-board amenities are excellent with spacious and well-appointed cabins, comfortable and well-decorated lounges and excellent dining rooms. Celebrity is well known for their incredible spa's and these three ships are no exception.

detail on every deck, in wood and marble, etched glass and polished granite giving the experienced cruiser an idea of the quality Celebrity are well known for.

Just 965ft in length and 105ft in beam they carry only 1950 passengers and can cruise at a comfortable 24 knots. This

RCI's Voyager Class

If you are looking for a limitless amount of choices and freedom, or refused to previously try cruising because you felt it was too confining, or you are convinced that bigger really is better - your ship(s) have finally come in! Currently four of the Voyager Class ships are available for your programs, the Voyager, Explorer, Adventurer and the Navigator of the Seas.

Innovation is key on all of the Voyager Class ships, marvel at the boulevard of shops, sports bar, English-style pub, 24-hour eatery, and a giant slot machine in a mini casino that actually leads into the Casino Royale one deck below. Although the facilities are only on one level, the Promenade stretches four decks high so when you look up and see the windows from the atrium view cabins, you feel as though you are outside on a city street, without the elements to interrupt your fun.

On many evenings, there are themed parties and parades down the Promenade. At various times there are laser light shows and a troupe of street performers and comics who interactively entertain the passengers throughout the day and evening.

Johnny Rockets is a 50's-style diner that serves burgers, hot dogs, fries, onion rings, malts, etc. Studio B Ice Skating Rink is by far one of the most exciting places on the Voyager. The Rock Climbing Wall offers classes for passengers to learn the "art" of rock climbing, additionally, there is an In-line skating track just adjacent to the 9-hole miniature golf course. Truly a sports-lover's paradise!

The breath-taking, three-tiered Dining Room, is actually three completely separate dining rooms that are connected by a grand sweeping staircase, sharing a spectacular crystal chandelier. Amazingly, it is very quiet and intimate. You can clearly hear the string quartet playing on the upper level, which adds to the elegant ambiance of the surroundings.

Cabins overall, both inside and outside on this ship are a vast improvement over RCI predecessors. Cabins offer more than adequate storage space, sitting areas, large mirrors, interactive 19' color televisions, hair dryers, and mini bars. Wood cabinet doors and moldings done in soft Caribbean colors add a nice touch. An atrium view cabin is basically an inside cabin with a bow window that faces the Royal Promenade.

There are bars and lounges - LOTS of them with themes from Egyptian to Aquatic (with beautiful fish tanks) to Nautical to Top 40's to Jazz. Instead of feeling overwhelmed by large, cold entertainment meccas, this ship has at least 12 completely separate and different, intimate hideaways. The spectacular three-tiered La Scala theater is a truly splendid Broadway theater with completely unobstructed views, true cinema seating, crystal clear acoustics, masterful sets, inventive costumes and artful performances - which all add up to very entertaining production shows.

Don't forget the expansive Shipshape Spa and "Exercise Mecca", the Windjammer Cafe and Island Grill for buffet meals, the cozy 84-seat Portofino restaurant for alternative Italian dining, the pool deck and open-air Solarium, a two-deck library and a vast and well-equipped conference center - suitable for a small trade show. The Voyager Class ships offer something for everyone.

Le Ponant

Le Ponant continues to awe all who sail on her. A modern version of the great ships of yesteryear, yet offering all the comfort, style and unparalleled speed under sail that modern technology brings to the ship.

A smaller more intimate vessel, with a quiet sophisticated atmosphere, she offers only 32 comfortable and spacious outside cabins. Each offer individually controlled air-conditioning and mini-bar. Equally famous for her cuisine as she is for her high level of personal service, the onboard ambience is more that of a private yacht with a small number of good friends.

For cruising connoisseurs this is as good as it gets for a true sailing experience.

Summer finds Le Ponant in the Mediterranean and in the winter she crosses the Atlantic to cruise the Windward Islands.

Le Levant

One of the prettiest of the modern small cruise ships, she accommodates up to 90 passengers in very spacious and well appointed outside cabins. This new ship is beautifully decorated with an extensive use of quality woods and tasteful fabrics.

Le Levant has room to spare. Every public room is generously sized, with the lounge incorporating a small dance floor as well as a full size bar. On the upper deck, a unique inside-outside lunch/buffet/BBQ restaurant serves an elegant, yet casual breakfast and lunch. Down below, a beautifully appointed single seating dining room is the perfect location for more formal dinners. With a library, sauna and gymnasium as well as a huge sun bathing deck and swimming pool, this unique vessel has everything you need.

Le Levant's itineraries are as unique as the ship... The ship roams through the Caribbean during the winter months, cruising from the Virgin Islands to the north and down as far as Venezuela, the Orinoco and Guiana to the south. Extending onwards down the coast of Central America. In the summer Le Levant visits the East Coast of the United States and Canada, cruising the St. Lawrence then Labrador and Hudson Bay.

Windstar Cruises

Windstar Cruises have long been known for their quality delivery of a unique cruise experience. Over the years their two smaller ships, the "Wind Star and Wind Spirit" have built an enviable reputation based on different and to some extent soft adventure itineraries, coupled with excellent cuisine and first class on-board service.

The latest edition to the Windstar fleet, the bigger but visually similar "m.s.v. Wind Surf" takes the experience to a new level. Bigger does indeed mean better in this case.

Lounges, two dining rooms, huge deck space and two very generous pools as well a gymnasium, spa, casino and water sports marina, have to give this ship one of the biggest guest to space ratio's in the

The two smaller Windstar ships are perfect for a whole ship charter. Why take your program on a bigger ship and lose half of them when you can have exclusive use of the ship all to yourself. The Wind Star or the Wind Spirit are sailing exotic itineraries in the Tahitian Islands, Caribbean and Mediterranean. Accommodating just 148 passengers in very comfortable surroundings these small ships are intimate, sophisticated and delightful.

Within her 617 feet she accommodates 312 passengers and many staterooms are easily recognizable as "Windstar" cabins. There is a whole deck of double sized staterooms/suites available as well as two decks of standard size staterooms.

business. The Wind Surf can be found cruising Northern Europe in the summer months and the Caribbean in winter.

Star Clippers

Star Clippers is one of only two-cruise line in existence that operate a fleet of sailing cruise ships. The fleet comprises three of the most beautiful and traditional Clipper ships imaginable.

These powerful sailing ships are a joy to cruise on. Few people will ever experience the sheer thrill of racing across the ocean under clouds of billow white sails, sea spray in the air, the ocean racing under the keel and boiling up at the stern as your ship almost silently powers her way to your next anchorage.

The ROYAL CLIPPER is the world's largest true sailing ship at 439 feet overall, she accommodates 228 passengers in double occupancy format comprising 92 outside cabins, 16 de-luxe suites (14 of which have a private balcony) three swim pools, a three deck atrium, a marina that lowers from the stern and a unique underwater viewing lounge.

Sailing back and forth across the Atlantic as the seasons change in the winter she will found cruising from Barbados, alternating weeks to the Windward Islands and the Grenadines, in summer she will be cruising the western Mediterranean from Cannes south along the Italian Riviera and westwards to the Balearic Islands. With her two smaller sisters "Star Flyer and Star Clipper", who accommodate 170 passenger in their 360 feet these big sailing ships offer the experience of sailing in the oldest tradition of seafaring. As well as sailing unique itineraries. Star Flyer sails the Far Eastern and Eastern Mediterranean routes, Star Clipper the Mayan Caribbean and Western Mediterranean.

Charter a ship for your companies exclusive use and give your incentive participants memories they will never forget. Chartering a Star Clipper ship is surprisingly reasonably priced and let Worldwide handle all the details, it could not be easier.

Sea Cloud Cruises

Dear Colleague,

In a world that seems to bury itself in unwanted paper work, the very last thing any of us need is another brochure! So believe me when I say that a lot of thought went into the decision to produce this new edition of our ever popular "Unique Global Solutions" brochure. For a long time, we toyed with the idea of making an electronic edition only, but numerous clients advised us that this would not be as convenient as having a brochure for them to throw on a client's desk.

So we compromised, and decided that this edition would be tightly bound to our web-pages (located at www.cruise.co.com). To bond the two together we have consciously made the brochure the teaser, and the web pages the information. There, you can locate the hard-to-find details of the ships we display in our brochure, as well as viewing our ship reviews and photo images.

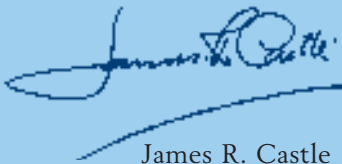

Anyone who has visited our web-pages knows that they consist of a plethora of information on the ships that we sell; information that is specifically geared to the corporate travel planner. It is Worldwide's intention to continually build on this data base to provide a unique library of information to assist our clients in the selection and delivery of their incentive programs.

Since our last edition of this brochure, we have hired additional staff to enable us to expand our cruise operations department. Many of our clients have acknowledged that one of the most appreciated aspects of having Worldwide do their purchasing, is the follow up and follow through that we supply as an inclusive part of our service.

All of our associates and staff here at Worldwide are genuinely committed to making our clients' programs the success that they expect. Additionally, I can sincerely say that everybody at Worldwide will go the extra mile to ensure that it happens.

Pick up the telephone and call. Our associates are waiting to hear from you.

Yours sincerely
